

Church Sunday School Superintendent

-Sample-

The Church Sunday School Superintendent serves as the general administrative leader of the Church Sunday School Ministry. This person is responsible for coordinating the work of all Church Sunday School classes, departments, and other Bible study opportunities towards the overarching goals of the Church Sunday School. He or she leads the Church Sunday School in planning, organizing, enlisting, and equipping teachers and other staff members to mobilize the membership to achieve the overall goals. The major responsibilities of the Church Sunday School Superintendent include the following:

1. Meets periodically with the pastor-teacher and monthly with the staff to evaluate the effectiveness of the Church Sunday School and to set the agenda for the Church School “Teachers” Planning Meetings
2. Communicates goals and action plans to leaders and participants and constantly evaluate progress
3. Leads in developing an effective organization that facilitates spiritual transformation
4. Leads in efforts to call participants into service and in enlisting and developing new leaders and new teachers
5. Leads in evaluating needs related to space, budgets, curriculum, supplies, and other resources in order to make informed recommendations to the pastor-teacher
6. Sets a positive example for others by living as a true witness for Christ and through total involvement in the life and ministry of the overall ministry.
