Human Trafficking Ministry

In Collaboration with

MISSION:

The mission of the human trafficking ministry course is to illustrate how to work with congregations and communities while partnering with state, regional and national organizations. Through this course and the efforts of prayer, teaching, and life changing deeds, trained servant leaders will seek to raise awareness, influence change, and provide safe havens for healing.

Course Contents:

- 1) Make and measure progress against a data-driven, results-oriented action strategy;
- 2) Forge and sustain partnerships within congregations and communities, across regions and with national entities;
- 3) Raise awareness of the problem and the tools and possibilities for solving it;
- 4) Train our congregants and our collaborators to take individual and collective actions that will make a difference;
- 5) Ensure our congregations and collaborations are trauma-sensitive and safe places for survivors, their families and allies;
- 6) Advocate for change in organizational and public policies and to church and public systems that are aligned with saving and rescuing souls.
